DON'T YOU FEEL SORRY FOR THEM?

(INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE) CHICAGO, Dec. 21.—Fervent "prayers" for cold weather arose from the Auditorium Hotel here today where members of the Illinois Coal Operators Association were in session, perfecting their organization for the coming year.

"Give us cold weather, but without storms," prayed President Rice Miller, of Hillsboro, Ill., and other members echoed his prayer and added the announcement that the coal business in the "old drums—at a dead standstill."

Members of the association are all sorts of coal in abundance waiting for a live market and cold weather without storms to hamper transportation, they believe, will bring the market.
